Report description:

2022 was another difficult year for self-service cafeterias, whose performance is strongly correlated with that of the shopping centres and hypermarkets in which they are mostly located. Within an environment of rising inflation, consumer confidence fell during the year, which impacted footfall within shopping centres, thereby having a knock-on effect on the category. Indeed, despite the relaxation of COVID-19 related restrictions, current value sales remained well below pre-pandemic levels. In...
