Report description:

Some buffet-style self-service cafeterias struggled with issues relating to food safety and potential transmission of the virus due to their open food options and shared serving implements. This damped growth in value sales of buffet-style restaurants in 2022. In addition, as there remained minor pandemic-related restrictions throughout the year, it was difficult for self-service cafeterias to operate efficiently and with full capacity given the rules around social distancing. In the second half...
