Report description:

With no further restrictions and lockdowns, festivals returned to Australia in 2022, meaning that street stalls/kiosks could once again operate at full capacity. Festivals are a great way for this channel to gain business and expose a brand name to a wider audience. With consumers also starved of large-scale public events since 2020, the interest in and attendance of these types of gatherings reached high levels in 2022. However, following declines witnessed during the previous two years, transa...
