Report description:

Street stalls/kiosks is traditionally a popular channel in Belgium for offering quick, convenient, and affordable snacks and meal options. The pandemic had a significant impact on consumer foodservice due to various restrictions on opening hours and capacity. However, street stalls/kiosks was not as adversely impacted as some channels, as operators were permitted to open earlier, especially as takeaway dominates the offer. While the number of outlets continued to gradually decline in 2022, as so...
