Report description:

Solid growth in 2022 was the result of COVID-19 restrictions being lifted, with increased consumer mobility boosting sales. This was especially seen as much of the population went out more, feeling they had missed out during the previous years. In addition, inbound tourism grew throughout the year, and encouraged further visits to street stalls/kiosks. As the business model of street stalls/kiosks is heavily dependent on consumer footfall, inbound tourism and large public gatherings, sales slump...
