Report description:

With the last lockdown ending in 2022, street stalls were finally able to operate again. The lockdowns were particularly hard on street stalls that are reliant on public events and festivals for business. With all such events being postponed over 2020 and 2021, street stall vendors could finally open up shop again. With New Zealand's cultural diversity, there is an abundance of fairs and festivals for street vendors to attend and they had ample opportunity throughout 2022, especially in the seco...
