Report description:

A significant number of outlets classified in this category are food trucks. As a common rule, most of the food trucks present in Spain do not have a fixed location, but rather they move around and participate in regional festivals and fairs. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, almost all festivals and fairs were suspended for two years and only started to become fully operational again in 2022. As such, this led to surge in transactions at food trucks as well. The more positive outlook was even pounc...
