Report description:

Sydney - Comprehensive Overview of the City, PEST Analysis and Key Industries including Technology, Tourism and Hospitality, Construction and Retail

Summary

"City Profile - Sydney" provides historical and forecast data on key city level metrics along with analytical coverage of the latest political, economic, social, technological, infrastructural, legal and environmental issues affecting Sydney.

The report contains detailed tourism, retail, construction, technology and public infrastructure data and insight into economic, social, and industry trends.

Greater Sydney, also referred to as Metropolitan Sydney, is one among the 16 GCCSA (Greater Capital City Statistical Area) classified by the Australian Bureau of Statistics. Sydney is the economic center of Australia, accounting for 20% of the country's total GDP. Mining, construction, transport, trading, logistics, tourism, biotechnology, food processing, and advanced electronic manufacturing are the key industries that drive the area's economic growth.

Scope

- The industry and service sectors remain the key contributor to the regional economy and the major employers.
- Sydney is a key tourist destination for both domestic and international tourists
