Report description:

2022 saw robust, positive current value sales growth for street stalls/kiosks in Indonesia, thanks in large part to the reopening of schools and offices. Independent operators of street stalls and kiosks grew their share of sales during office lunch breaks, and several players - both chained and independent - benefited from rising demand for food and beverage products popular with students on their way home from school. The easing of pandemic-related restrictions surrounding malls also triggered...
