Report description:

Most COVID-19 gatherings and curfew restrictions were lifted in April 2022 in South Korea. Most businesses no longer had constraints on their working hours. Large public events such as sports games, and private gatherings, such as weddings, no longer had a cap on attendance. This was a huge step for people to go back to their pre-pandemic lives. As the curfew and gatherings on restrictions were eased, businesses started to see the return of customers, and this naturally led to an increase in sal...
