Report description:

Croatia has been facing declining birth rates for some time, which is a key challenge for the diapers category. However, retail volume sales have continued growing as there is much more financial investment by parents that do have children. Indeed, it is increasingly common for young couples to have one child in Croatia, although very often adults choose not to have children and may help siblings raise their own children. This trend is partially responsible for the increasing demand for eco-frie...
