Report description:

Demand for nappies/diapers/pants continued to decline in 2022 due to weak domestic demand as well as low numbers of inbound tourists since the pandemic. In 2022, there was no significant improvement in Hong Kong's birth rate. Married couples lacked the motivation to start a family for various reasons such as financial uncertainty. More importantly, there was no sufficient support or incentives to encourage them to do so. Local parents receive relatively low child subsidies and allowances compare...
