Report description:

Persistent inflationary pressures have lowered consumer confidence and constrained disposable incomes in 2022. The country's annualised rate of inflation remained above 8% in 2022, although conditions began to stabilise in the final quarter of the year. After the COVID-19 pandemic, the Dominican Republic fully reopened its economy during the second part of 2021, boosted by a stronger recovery in tourism than was initially expected. However, the impact caused by Hurricane Fiona in September 2022,...
