Report description:

Wipes for the home and personal care registered dynamic current value growth in 2022, with inflationary pressures pushing up prices. Demand patterns shifted back to normal in 2022 in line with the return of daily lifestyles post-pandemic. Consumers were more actively using single-use wipes during the COVID-19 pandemic in order to minimise the chances of getting COVID-19. However, with the pandemic largely over, consumers have reduced overall usage back to normal patterns. In general, single use...
