Report description:

Wipes recorded strong value growth in 2022, driven by high inflation in the Netherlands. Volume sales, however, were offset by differing performances within the category. For instance, personal wipes continued to grow whilst home care wipes and floor cleaning systems declined. With the worst of the COVID-19 health crisis over, and consumers spending more time outdoors travelling and enjoying entertainment activities, cleaning the home became less frequent. Moreover, as wipes are seen as a luxury...
