Report description:

After a 3-year period of marginally declining retail volume sales, home seclusion as a result of the pandemic in Chile and limitations on out-of-home dining, drove up demand for dishwashing in 2020 and 2021, as consumers spent greater time cooking at home for themselves. Naturally, the end of lockdowns and the return of fully operational restaurants in 2022 resulted in dishwashing resuming its declining trajectory as local consumers regained mobility outside of the home, including dining out, at...
