Report description:

During 2022, full-service restaurants in the Czech Republic registered positive value growth as the category edged closer to completely recovery to pre-pandemic sales levels. However, demand for full-service restaurants remained under pressure throughout the year as the rising cost of living meant that many consumers were very concerned about their outgoings, resulting in a circumspect and highly cautious approach to consumer spending. This meant suppressed demand at a time when many restaurant...
