Report description:

For a growing proportion of consumers in Germany over recent years, the motto for jewellery has been "more is more": necklaces are worn on top of each other, as many earrings and studs as possible are hung in the ears, and rings are combined with each other. Signet rings in particular (whether for men or women) with thicker, chunkier models have been in focus in 2022. Showier models and those of high quality are also popular, meaning the quality should be right, and the jewellery should not tarnish...
