Report description:

Taiwan witnessed a second wave of the pandemic in May 2022. Although the local government did not impose any mandatory lockdown period at home, some consumers chose to spend more time at home out of health concerns, leading to slightly increasing demand for reusable sanitary protection products. However, reusable products are so niche in Taiwan that they do not exert a major negative influence on sanitary protection. Moreover, as sanitary protection is regarded as a necessity, category sales ten...
