Report description:

In 2020, with pandemic-related lockdowns and restrictions in place impacting shopping centres, non-essential retailers and particularly consumer foodservice activity, with many consumer foodservice outlets, bars, shops and nightclubs containing cigarette vending machines, there was a migration to other channels, especially forecourt retailers for tobacco products, leading to double-digit value declines.

Euromonitor International's Vending in Portugal report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Product coverage: Appliances and Electronics Vending, Drinks and Tobacco Vending, Fashion Vending, Foods Vending, Health and Beauty Vending, Home Products Vending, Other Products Vending.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
