Report description:

Vending sales benefited from the recovery of consumer mobility in 2022, as pandemic restrictions were lifted in March. This, in combination with rising retail prices, pushed vending into double-digit growth territory in current value terms. However, as the financial situation of Slovaks worsened in 2022, consumers were behaving more rationally in their spending activity, looking for better value for money. As vending is expensive compared to most grocery retailers, this limited vending's growth...
