Report description:

Once again, portable players saw increasing retail volume sales in Germany in 2022, but this was exclusively attributable to wireless speakers. E-readers continued to be substituted by smartphones and tablets, and volume sales continued to decline. Many Germans also still favour traditional books, to minimise screen time and actively opt out of the digital world. In addition to e-readers, portable multimedia players has been showing a very sharp decline in sales, due to substitution with technol...
