Report description:

Seoul - Comprehensive Overview of the City, PEST Analysis and Key Industries including Technology, Tourism and Hospitality, Construction and Retail

Summary

"City Profile - Seoul" provides historical and forecast data on key city level metrics along with analytical coverage of the latest political, economic, social, technological, infrastructural, legal and environmental issues affecting Seoul.

The report contains detailed tourism, retail, construction, technology and public infrastructure data and insight into economic, social, and industry trends.

Seoul is the capital and most populous city of the Republic of Korea (ROK). Seoul is a key financial and economic hub of South Korea accounting for around 22.8% of the national GDP. Seoul has evolved from a commercial and industrial center into an economic center, due to rapid growth in the tertiary sector, such as finance and insurance, trade, transport, communications and real estate.

Scope

- The Industry and service sectors remain the key contributor to the regional economy - and the major employers.
- Seoul is a key tourist destination for both domestic and international tourists and witnessed a significant growth in 2022. China is major source of inbound tourism
