Report description:

Appliances and electronics specialists suffered heavy losses during 2020 as consumers went online to purchase these products as COVID-19 restrictions meant consumers were unable or unwilling to shop in store. There was a reversal of fortunes in 2021 as restrictions were eased and consumers returned to shopping in appliances and electronics specialists in greater numbers, with appliances and electronics e-commerce witnessed a dramatic slowdown in growth after the triple-digit growth seen in 2020.

Euromonitor International's Appliances and Electronics Specialists in Canada report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
