Report description:

Sales of appliances and electronics specialists saw significant growth in 2021, producing a rebound from the great losses that these retailers had suffered due to the COVID-19 crisis. This growth was driven by the fact that families needed to acquire products for the home or renew equipment in order to improve comfort inside the house and facilitate housework and working from home. In addition, physical stores were able to operate for most of the year (except for February 2021 when there was a m...
