Report description:

Independent convenience stores are benefiting from the launch of Costco in New Zealand. These retailers, which traditionally had to purchase wholesale supplies from large supermarkets at retail prices, now have the option to stock up at Costco. Wholesaling is an integral part of the Costco business model, and in Australia, it accounts for approximately 25% of Costco's sales. In New Zealand, Costco's extensive range of products includes products from 200 local suppliers, and the retailer claims t...
