Report description:

Direct selling in Chile, while posting solid growth in 2022, has not seen important changes in the last couple of years, as no new brands have entered the channel or announced their intention to do so. This means that traditional players continue to gain ground, creating dynamism only on the back of new product launches, but not experiencing any intense competition from newcomers, not even those present in neighbouring countries, such as Mary Kay and Tupperware. In this context, Natura continues...

Euromonitor International's Direct Selling in Chile report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight.
