Report description:

Grocery retailers saw strong current value growth in 2022. As the situation stabilised with the reduced threat of Coronavirus (COVID-19), smaller formats like food/drink/tobacco specialists, small local grocers and convenience stores also started to recover sales. Despite economic uncertainty, existing grocery chains continued to look to expansion plans, while new and important entrants gained traction. Many players opened new outlets in big cities and in the regions. Importantly, discounters to...
