Report description:

The pandemic and consequent restrictions took a heavy toll on non-essential outlets, including health and beauty specialists, but especially beauty specialists. During half of 2020 and a few months in 2021, not only were such stores closed, but also their online and click-and-collect services struggled due to lower interest from consumers, as there was a much lower need to purchase premium fragrances and colour cosmetics when they stayed at home for work and wore a mask when outside. However, fr...
