Report description:

Home products specialists continued to see solid current value growth in 2022, even as high labour costs dampened demand for home renovations. The pandemic saw consumers' priorities shift towards improving their home environment, and this continued to be the case in 2022. Even as lockdown restrictions eased, consumers continued to look for ways to make their homes more comfortable, and retailers offering products for home offices, indoor gyms, gardening, and outdoor entertainment benefited from...
