Report description:

The hypermarket business model has suffered from the strong expansion of neighbourhood supermarkets and convenience stores in Brazil, not only for the physical convenience of location, but also for the more limited daily purchases of families, due to the restriction of domestic budgets with the fall in purchasing power and high food inflation. One of the key factors that has presented challenges to hypermarkets is that success in grocery retailers in Brazil is dependent on locating outlets in hi...

Euromonitor International's Hypermarkets in Brazil report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight.
