Report description:

Not only do small local grocers continue to dominate sales in grocery retailing in India, but this channel also managed to continue recording positive growth rates throughout the pandemic. This channel offered consumers ease of accessibility for daily needs when COVID-19 restrictions were in place, with consumers often preferring to shop at neighbourhood stores during lockdown, particularly as small local grocers remained open at such times, and are in close proximity to homes in both urban and...

Euromonitor International's Small Local Grocers in India report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry.
