Report description:

Small local grocers saw a decline in sales in constant value terms in 2022, as the channel struggled to adapt to the inflationary environment. Indeed, many outlets were forced to cease operating, due to rising operating costs, with surging energy prices dealing a particularly devastating blow. Moreover, a portion of consumers are shifting from small local grocers to modern grocery formats, such as discounters, which are perceived as offering better value for money, given the wide variety of promot...
