Report description:

In 2020, COVID-19 decimated the store-based sales of apparel and footwear specialists in the US, but in 2021 the channel came roaring back. In part, this was due to the fact that the majority of US consumers were ready to psychologically move past the pandemic in 2021, which led to a resurgence in sales at bricks-and-mortar retailers across the board. In the world of apparel specifically, sales were also boosted by the fact that some US residents who had been working from home during the pandemi...
