Report description:

Limited-service restaurants posted another positive performance in 2022. It was the most resilient to the pandemic and subsequent restrictions in 2020 compared to other channels, recording the lowest declines in terms of value sales and transaction numbers. This was due to established alternative services to eat-in, such as takeaway, home delivery and drive-through, enabling consumers to still enjoy their favourite brands without risking exposure to the virus. These services were not impacted by...
