Report description:

Non-grocery retail is seeing robust double-digit growth in 2022, stimulated by the return to out-of-home lifestyles following the era of the pandemic restrictions. This is also notably supported by the ongoing economic recovery in Slovenia. Inflation levels remained in the single digits (8.3%) in 2022, which is low for all eastern Europe, with many other eastern European countries seeing inflation levels in the double digits. As such, the somewhat beneficial economic situation in Slovenia is fueling...
