Report description:

Brazil is amongst the largest producers of beans in the world. The bean crop is one of the most important for feeding Brazilians. The states of Parana, Minas Gerais and Bahia are the main producers, mostly on properties owned by small farmers. Beans are extremely relevant in the country's culture and cuisine. As a basic staple, beans are consumed by all social classes, although the product's nutritional relevance is considerably higher amongst lower-income groups, which rely on beans to fulfil t...
