Report description:

Retail in Estonia saw total current value sales grow at a double-digit rate for a second consecutive year in 2022. However, growth was only marginally faster than in 2021 despite steep increases in unit prices for all kinds of goods amidst a surge in inflation fuelled by the global recovery from the pandemic and the wider geopolitical fallout of Russia's invasion of Ukraine. Trade across the market was depressed as falling purchasing power and a dramatic rise in living costs - especially in hous...
