Report description:

As the world reopened after months of lockdown in 2022, appliances and electronics specialists remained challenged by supply chain disruptions due to the combined effects of port congestion, China's "zero-Covid" policy and flooding in KwaZulu-Natal. The channel's performance was also affected by higher operating costs, exacerbated by rand depreciation, since it placed additional pressure on imported products, thereby driving up unit prices and value growth. In addition, the momentum gained durin...
