Report description:

Between March 2020 and December 2021, sales through convenience stores were negatively impacted by mandatory trade restrictions that limited operating hours. The situation was more challenging for operators of forecourt retailers, which moved from a 24/7 model to having to close their outlets between 20.00hrs and midnight, depending on the lockdown level of alert. As a result, the government's announcement of the end of curfews on 1 January 2022 offered significant relief for many businesses sin...
