Report description:

General merchandise stores saw continued decline in the Bulgarian market in 2022, falling further below pre-pandemic levels because shoppers' patterns have changed ever since the outbreak of COVID-19. Increasingly consumers have shown a focus on e-commerce and specialist stores, which tend to offer different products at various prices that are suitable for a wider range of consumers. Even as lifestyles returned to normal with the waning of the immediate threat from COVID-19, consumers continued...
