Report description:

General merchandise stores, which comprises department stores and variety stores, experienced declining sales in constant value terms in 2022. Department stores were hit particularly hard by the COVID-19 crisis when mandatory store closures and other restrictions placed pressure on sales. Moreover, even when these outlets reopened, they suffered from reduced footfall, due to their old fashioned image. One of the major issues for department stores is the outdated look of the buildings in which th...
