Report description:

During 2021 and 2022 retail saw healthy current value sales growth across formats in Colombia. Against forecasts, household consumption sustained the country's economy and kept it on a growth path. This was highly visible in the country's retail sphere. In the post-Coronavirus (COVID-19) environment, there was not a complete recovery in terms of employment rates. Meanwhile, Banco de la Republica increased interest rates to historical levels, and the rate of inflation reached double-digits. These...
