Report description:

After two years of solid growth during the COVID-19 pandemic, overall retail saw a slight decline in current value terms in 2022. This was partly due to some normalisation of sales after two strong years, and partly due to the impact of the economic crisis and the war in Ukraine, which resulted in a lower level of consumer confidence than was seen at the height of the pandemic. The year progressed well for many channels, as consumers took the opportunity to return to retail stores. However, afte...
