Key Highlights

- The non-life insurance market consists of the general insurance market segmented into motor, property, liability and other insurance. The other segment is made up of non-life insurance products including health, travel, and accident cover among others. The value of the non-life insurance market is shown in terms of gross premium incomes. Gross premium income is defined as the insurer's premium income for the year from its policies, calculated without reduction for reinsurance premiums paid or payable by the insurer.
- The Taiwanese non-life insurance market had total gross written premiums of $25.6 million in 2022, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 4.4% between 2017 and 2022.
- The Motor segment accounted for market's the largest proportion in 2022, with total gross written premiums of $13.9 million, equivalent to 54.4% of the market's overall value.
- The 'Farmers' Insurance Act' was introduced by the Taiwanese government in May 2021 to protect farmers', animal breeders', fishermen', and foresters' income from accidents, natural catastrophes, and other occurrences. A parametric aquaculture insurance was also announced by the Council of Agriculture in March 2021 to cover rainfall in Kaohsiung City, offering protection for fishermen from the increased risk of flooding and heavy rain.
