Report description:

While other pet food is only expected to see total volume sales increase marginally in 2023, growth should be up from 2022. The anticipated improvement is mainly due to rising demand for small mammal food as pets like hamsters and rabbits continue to gain popularity in Bulgaria, especially among families with young children. Volume sales of bird food are also projected to increase slightly in line with growth in the pet bird population. In contrast, with the pet fish population shrinking, fish f...
