Report description:

After receiving an extraordinary boost in 2020 following the emergence of the pandemic and subsequent home seclusion, which resulted in a surge in pet adoptions, growth rates of pet care have since noticeably slowed in Chile. The categories that mainly drive the performance of the industry in retail value terms are premium dog and cat food, in both dry and wet formats, although these are also stabilising in line with increasing price-sensitivity and declining disposable incomes. This is mainly b...
