Report description:

With the recent inflationary surge brought about by the global recovery from the pandemic and Russia's invasion of Ukraine gradually subsiding, pet products looks set to experience a slowdown in total current value sales growth in 2023. Nonetheless, it should still register an impressive performance in this respect, as rising pet ownership in Bulgaria and pet humanisation continue to boost demand for a wide variety of product types. In particular, as owners become more inclined to see pets - pri...
