Report description:

In 2022, volume sales of sauces, dips, and condiments declined again, similar to the previous year, as demand returned to normal levels from the double-digit growth seen during the pandemic's initial year. Austrian consumers are spending more time outside, resulting in less frequent cooking and eating at home. However, despite the decline in volume sales, value growth was positive, mainly due to stronger price increases resulting from rising raw materials and manufacturing costs. The price incre...
