Report description:

Homewares saw only limited current value growth in Brazil in 2022, mostly because consumers' priorities changed in terms of their spending. After two years of increased focus on the home, on renovations, and beautifying one's living space due to the pandemic, consumers ventured outside of their homes once again, which determined where they chose to spend their money. Consumers focused more on having experiences, eating meals, and shopping for clothes, rather than investing in homewares, thus ham...
